On 19 December 1953, VEB-Druck (Nationalized Printing Office) at 2 Inselstrasse, Leipzig, furnished the Sea Police Publishing Office in Berlin with sea charts of the Fehmarn Belt and the Bay of Neustadt. In late December 1953, these charts were shipped to the Stralsund Sea Police, which had ordered them.

Comment. It appears worth noting that a large number of charts of these regions were ordered. The value of these charts is doubtful as regards paper, printing and accuracy. As no author or editor was named, they would not be accepted by international sea shipping. They were probably meant to serve as expendable supplies.
